product Altopiano
standout This table's top, available in a rainbow of hues, sandwiches a layer of fabric between sheets of tempered glass—properly thermostet and sealed to allow the resulting dose of color to live outdoors. Through West | Out East. westouteast.com, paolalenti.it

product Gaia
standout Celebrating the beauty of teak, a suspension lamp with Rubelli outdoor fabric shade incorporates magnets and a USB charging system, allowing natural rope to twist and knot into any position. ethimo.com product Onsen

standout The Italian duo's architectonic seating series derives from experimentations with exterior materials featuring contrasting properties: namely, a matte stainless-steel frame woven with chic faux leather straps. gandiasblasco.com

product Deck
standout Inspired by vintage sailing vessels, the designer behind Danish studio 365° conceived of a distinctive outdoor table crafted in solid teak. gloster.com
