

Stuff

Garden of Delight

Five patio solutions for laying low in the summer heat

BY SARA CUNNINGHAM

1

2

3

4

5

1 RING OF FIRE

Warm your hands (and ward off mosquitoes) around this lightweight concrete fire pit handcrafted locally by Dekko Concrete. Natural gas or propane burning, it also comes with your choice of decorative rock. $2495, AT ARD OUTDOOR, 3019 DUFFERIN ST. ARDOUTDOOR.COM

2 PATH FINDER

The buffed teak handle on the Cocoon lantern makes it easy for pool party guests to locate flip-flops, while the polypropylene shade creates solar and rechargeable LED-powered ambience. $900, AT JARDIN DE VILLE, 44 SHERBOURNE ST. JARDINDEVILLE.COM

3 OUTLIERS

Patricia Urquiola referenced India's quintessential carpets and roll cushions for her latest rug collection for Gan. Handmade in polypropylene, the boho outdoor range dries quickly after flash summer showers. CALL FOR PRICING, AT KIOSK, 288 KING ST E. KIOSKDESIGN.CA

4 ISLAND IN THE SUN

Designed to look like a small island rising out of the sea, the comfy Brioni lounge chair features a dark band that protects its UV-resistant upholstery from making contact with the ground. FROM $3700, AT SUITE 22 INTERIORS, 429 RICHMOND ST E. SUITE22.CA

5 SHADES OF SUMMER

Paola Lenti's dazzling flat or dome-shaped Bistro parasols now come with seating elements and aluminum side tables that can be configured to create the perfect patio oasis. CALL FOR PRICING, AT STUDIO B, 380 KING ST E. STUDIOBHOME.COM