

WHAT'S HOT THE BEST DESIGN DISCOVERIES

Kapka looked to the Memphis Group and 1980s club culture when dreaming up its vibrant, abstract-patterned Flashback series of eco-friendly enamelware.

From $12 for a mug. kapka.com.tr

Paola Lenti employed a proprietary rope cord—made of ecologically sound polyurethane and polyolefin—for the handwoven seat and back of this Kiti chair. The green and blue tones lend the pattern a painterly quality. 23" w. x 24" d. x 34" h., available in other colors, from $1,980. paolalenti.it

April showers usually bring May flowers, but D. Porthault has a more accelerated timeline: Its Fleurs d'Avril cotton-percale boudoir sham looks like a French meadow in full bloom.

16" w. x 12" h., $325. dportaultparis.com

This Canaletto-walnut Giotto bookcase by Cattelan Italia, accented with shelves in matte graphite or lacquered wood, has the elegantly simple lines of an easel, but with more storage.

55" w. x 17" d. x 81" h., available in other finishes, $2,755. cattelanitalia.com