

1. Teatime

by Francesco Rota
for Paola Lenti

Protecting Teatime's steel frame is Thuaia, a Paola Lenti signature fabric developed especially for outdoor environments.

paolalenti.com

2. Plantation MAX Cantilever

by Dougan Clarke
for Tuuci

Made from solid teak and aluminium, this stylish corrosion-resistant parasol is easy to operate and offers hours of uninterrupted shade.

tuuci.com

3. Front Extension Table

by Fischer Möbel

As part of two Fischer Möbel collections, Modena and Swing, this extendible stainless-steel table offers customers a choice between two leg styles.

fischermobel.de

4. Poltrona Lounge Teak

by Hendrik Steenbakkers
for FueraDentro

The robust teak frame-cum-armrest holds the seat almost in a state of suspension, creating the impression that it is hovering in midair.

fueradentro.com

5. Brezza

by Denis Santachiara
for Bysteel

Sea breezes provided the inspiration for Brezza, a lamp with a stainless-steel base and a reflector fashioned from aluminium fins.

bysteel.it

6. XQI

by Kris Van Puyvelde
for Royal Botania

Outdoor elegance in teak defines the stackable XQI, a popular choice from Royal Botania.

royalbotania.com

7. Biknit

by Patricia Urquiola
for Moroso

The stocking-stitch design that highlights wood-based Biknit lends support while cradling the body in its snug texture.

moroso.it

8. Safari

by Kenneth Cobonpue
for Hive

Looking like a happy family, Safari planters come in long-limbed 'giraffe' and petite 'hedgehog' models, not to mention a variety of colours.

designbyhive.com

1

3

5

6

4

7

8

2