

4

4. GERVASONI | JEKO

Among the 12 collections of the new Gervasoni Outdoor line, the Jeko collection is a new entry composed of seats, sofas – also with a canopy – large and small tables, with structure in ECOTEak. The exotic charm is accentuated by the material: the teak comes from controlled and authorized demolition of traditional wooden houses on the island of Java. Design Paola Navone.

5. LISTONE GIORDANO | PERIGAL

From the collaboration between the company and Paola Lenti, a brand of reference for outdoor furnishings, new variations of the Perigal collection in bright aqua, graphite, oil and teal tones, to create surfaces with brushstrokes of surprising color. Based on a 19th-century mathematical theorem, Perigal is composed of geometric modules that can now also be mounted on the wall, like paneling, as well as on the floor.

5

6

6. MUTAFORMA | ANTHEMION

Anthemion is the first collection created by floral designer Dylan Tripp for Mutaforma, a project that pays homage to the aristocratic charm of the planimetric vision of flowers, transforming their beauty on micro mosaic surfaces (made up of small-size tiles – the TILLA® glass shingles) thanks to the company's know-how and technologies.

7. AGAPE | IN-OUT

A new solution in marble, for the bathtub series of the In-Out program (design Benedini Associati). The model in green Alpi marble stands out, but the item is also available in white Carrara, black Marquina and Emperador Dark. The steel sections combine multiple units in single products of remarkable size and play a decorative role as well.

8. ANDREU WORLD | DADO CURVE

Dado Curve is the result of in-depth evolution of a sofa series designed by Alfredo Häberli. With versatile modular design, thanks to new items that expand compositional options – curves, corners, poufs – Dado becomes a complete system for insertion in private or collective spaces, offering enjoyable moments of relaxation.

7

8

BE RIGHT THERE

Spotlight on the great technological and scientific discoveries that will revolutionize (it's already happening) the conquest of space, with the support of big international tycoons, from Elon Musk to Jeff Bezos and Richard Branson. This Story narrates the innate desire of human beings to go beyond familiar limits, especially those of space and speed; a desire we are seeing fulfilled thanks to the futuristic thinking of great visionaries, reflected in intense, energetic tones of blue, suggesting abstraction and imagination. In this palette orange is a 'vibrant' shade, along with dark blue and anthracite gray, as well as a synthetic green and a silvery lilac hue.

1. PAOLA LENTI | TELAR

From the Aqua Collection, the Telar series has been designed by Lina Obregón. Composed of a chair with or without armrests, a chaise longue and a pouf, it stands out for its light structure in glossy coated stainless steel, covered by hand with woven elastic belting, in different sizes, using Rope, an exclusive material developed and produced by Paola Lenti for outdoor furnishings.

2. CC-TAPIS | SUPER FAKE HOT

A perfect representative of the Story, Super Fake Hot is the new color-combination created by Bethan Laura Wood for her already well-known collection Super Fake. A new color palette of warm and vibrant tones for the Super Rock and Super Round rugs, which were originally launched in June 2019.

3. GEBRÜDER THONET VIENNA | NYNY

With a totemic spirit, NYNY relies on the asymmetrical stacking of geometric volumes with different functions (drawers, compartments with doors, desk) made in wood and Vienna straw, that are suspended thanks to the support of the wall-mounted metal structure. This multifaceted design by storagemilano, with its versatile personality, expresses an interdependence of design, architecture and art, also declared in the name NYNY, as in New York, New York.

4. IRIS CERAMICA WITH DIESEL LIVING CEMENT MEXICAN

Cement Mexican combines the purity and solidity of cement with the chromatic power of the Mexican landscape. The color of tierras calientes, the sun, brightly decorated houses, the thousand hues of the ocean and the green of the olive trees: every shade is amplified, full, lived-in. A world that comes inside and colors space, adding personality and life.

Aesthetics

1

2

3

4