

GO ALL OUT

From curvy sofas to luxe coffee tables, this summer it's all about investing in outdoor furniture that looks as good as the stuff in the house.

By Roddy Clarke

Coffee tables are the ideal garden accessory for low-level chilling (and dining)

The Cut//Home

Outdoor shelving is perfect for a barbecue station, or to store garden tools and pots

- 1 — Galvanised shelving system, from £49 for a side panel, String (skandium.com)
- 2 — Rusty Logstore firepit, £250, Cox & Cox (coxandcox.co.uk)
- 3 — Drohan metal chair, £125, Habitat (habitat.co.uk)
- 4 — Valencia Garden two-seater sofa, £399, armchair, £275, ottoman, £199, and coffee table, £149, all John Lewis & Partners (johnlewis.com)
- 5 — Uto lights, £384 each, Foscarini (ariashop.co.uk)
- 6 — FollowMe rechargeable table lamp, £170, Marset (trouva.com)
- 7 — Riohacha outdoor rug, £603, Missoni Home (amara.com)
- 8 — Tanso bench, £585, David Irwin for Case (casefurniture.com)
- 9 — Copa hanging chair, £449, Made (made.com)
- 10 — Sciara side tables, £1,910 each, Paola Lenti (chaplins.co.uk)
- 11 — Kamino cast-iron outdoor fireplace, £999, Morso (morsoe.com)
- 12 — Bubble Rock sofa, £5,307, Piero Lissoni for Living Divani (aram.co.uk)
- 13 — Locus Solus armchair, £2,090, Exteta (globalluxurylondon.com)
- 14 — Garden trolley, £2,249, Roshults (houseology.com)
- 15 — Teka 174 dining table, £6,151, Gordon Guillaumier for Roda (conranshop.com)

Statement fireplaces are the new patio essential – a cut above your humble terracotta chimenea

